

THE HONORABLE SHEILA C. BAIR

Sheila Bair has had a long and distinguished career in government, academia, and finance. Widely respected for her expertise in financial regulation and consumer protection, Ms. Bair currently serves on a number of corporate and fintech boards while advocating for sensible policies that promote financial system stability and responsible lending practices.

Ms. Bair is currently Chair of Fannie Mae's Board, effective November 20, 2020, after serving as a Director at Fannie Mae since August 2019. Ms. Bair is a member of the Community Responsibility & Sustainability Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and the Risk Policy and Capital Committee.

Ms. Bair served as President of Washington College from August 2015 to June 2017. Prior to that, she was Senior Advisor to the Pew Charitable Trusts from 2011 to 2015. Ms. Bair was also Senior Advisor to international law firm DLA Piper from 2014 to 2015. Ms. Bair was the Chair of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation from 2006 to 2011. From 2002 to 2006, she was the Dean's Professor of Financial Regulatory Policy for the Isenberg School of Management at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. She also served as Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions at the U.S. Department of the Treasury from 2001 to 2002, Senior Vice President for Government Relations of the New York Stock Exchange from 1995 to 2000, Commissioner of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission from 1991 to 1995, counsel to the New York Stock Exchange from 1988 to 1990, and counsel to Senator Bob Dole from 1981 to 1988.

Ms. Bair is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Host Hotels & Resorts, Inc., where she serves as a member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In addition, Ms. Bair is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Bunge Limited, where she serves as a member of the Audit Committee and the Enterprise Risk Management Committee. Ms. Bair also serves as Chair Emerita of the Systemic Risk Council, a public interest group that monitors progress on the implementation of financial reforms, and on the boards of Paxos Trust Company, LLC and its parent Kabompo Holdings, Ltd., and the Volcker Alliance.

Ms. Bair is perhaps best known as Chair of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) from 2006 to 2011, when she steered the agency through the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression, working to bolster public confidence in the nation's banking system. During her tenure, she received numerous awards and recognition for her leadership at the FDIC, including the JFK Library's Profiles in Courage Award. She was twice named by Forbes Magazine as the second most powerful woman in the world and was dubbed the "little guy's protector in chief" by Time Magazine. Time also placed her on the coveted "Time 100" most influential people list, profiling her on its cover with Elizabeth Warren and Mary Schapiro as one of the "New Sheriffs of Wall Street".

An articulate and frequently provocative writer and public speaker, Ms. Bair has published numerous articles for Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Washington Post, Financial Times, Fortune Magazine, and American Banker. She is the author of New York Times Best Seller Bull by the Horns, a memoir of the financial crisis, and has also written children's books on financial matters called Rock Brock and the Savings Shock and Isabel's Car Wash, as well as her young adult book on the financial crisis, Bullies of Wall Street.
